

Progressive Education Society's Modern College of Engineering, Pune - 05

(An Autonomous Institute Affiliated to Savitribai Phule Pune University)

SDV05601 – SKILL DEVELOPMENT - I

(Second year MCA Sem. I)

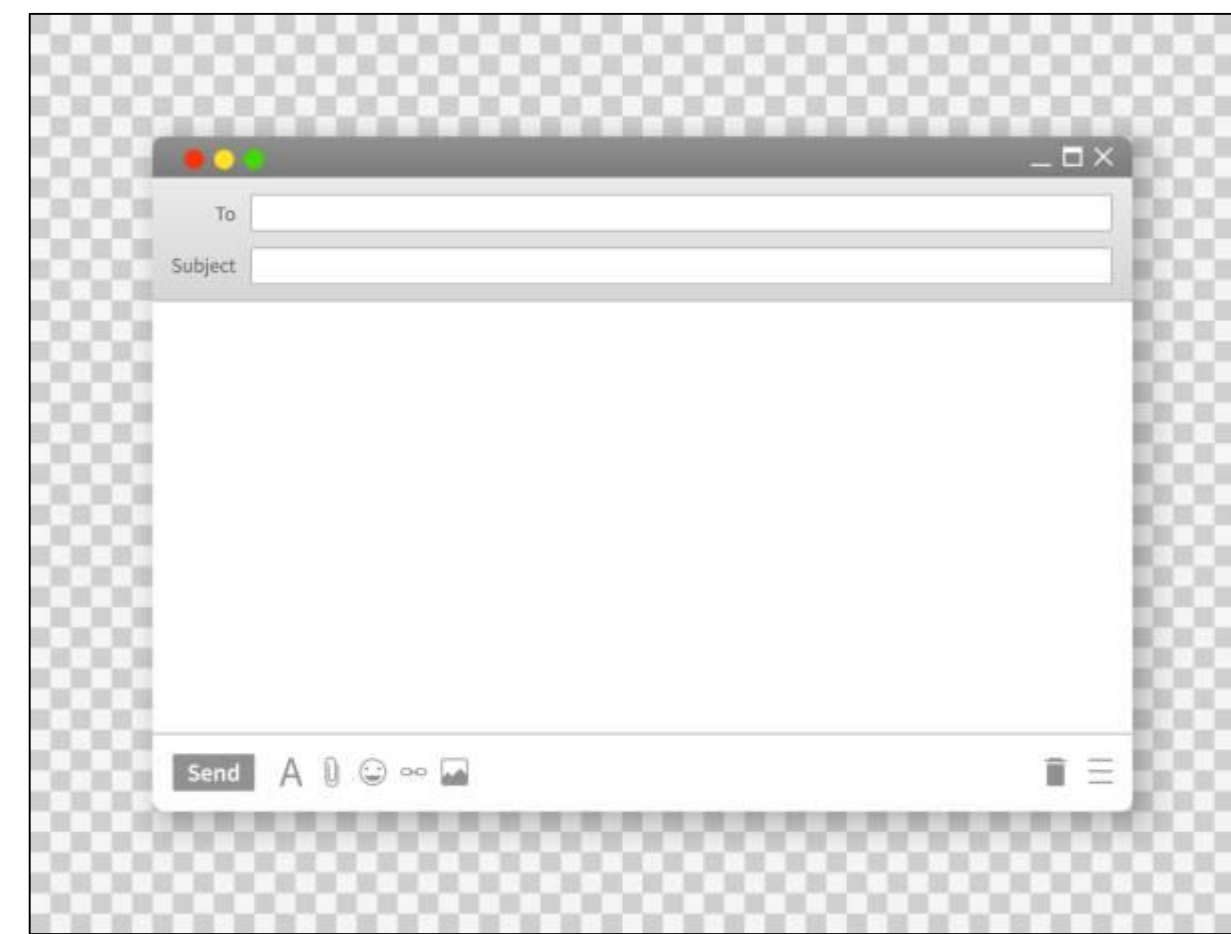

Week-1

Activity 1–Draft a professional E-mail requesting leave from your project manager

ACTIVITY 1 - DRAFTING A PROFESSIONAL E-MAIL

CO609.1: Demonstrate effective communication through e-mail writing, presentations, and video introductions.

Activity description: The students have to write a professional E-mail requesting leave from a project manager.

REPLACEMENT OF FORMAL LETTERS BY E-MAIL

Only a few things are different an e-mail and a formal letter. They are as follows:

- Do not mention the sender's address in an e-mail as here the identity becomes the e-mail address through which the sender is sending the mail.
- Instead of a company seal use the company's logo that is registered in the name of the company.
- One can add links and URLs in an e-mail for the purpose of referencing in an e-mail.
- Do not write the subject again in the mail body as there is a separate space for writing the subject.
- No need for signatures as our mail ID is enough.

SUMMARY OF E-MAIL PARTS

- 1) Subject line: Concise summary of the e-mail's content.
- 2) Salutation / greeting: Addressing the recipient.
- 3) Introduction: Opening statement to introduce the topic.
- 4) Body: Detailed message with the main content.
- 5) Closing remarks: Final polite comments and action request.
- 6) Sign-off / closing: The polite sign-off before the e-mail ends.
- 7) Signature: Your name and contact information.
- 8) Attachments: Files included with the e-mail.
- 9) CC / BCC: Additional recipients (if applicable).

INITIAL GREETING FOR BEGINNING OF THE E-MAIL

Anyone can use these statements while initiating the e-mail body as per the subject and requirement:

- I am writing with regard to.
- I am writing in connection with.
- I am writing in reference to.
- This is to bring your attention at.
- This is to inform you.
- I regret to inform you.

WINDING UP STATEMENTS

Given below are some of the statements that are necessary to use while writing a Formal E-mail as it makes the sender sound professional.

- Looking forward to hearing from you soon.
- Thank you in advance (must be used rarely, as it might sound like you are forcing someone to perform an action that is considered unprofessional).
- Thanks for your attention.
- For further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.
- Please let me know if you have any questions.

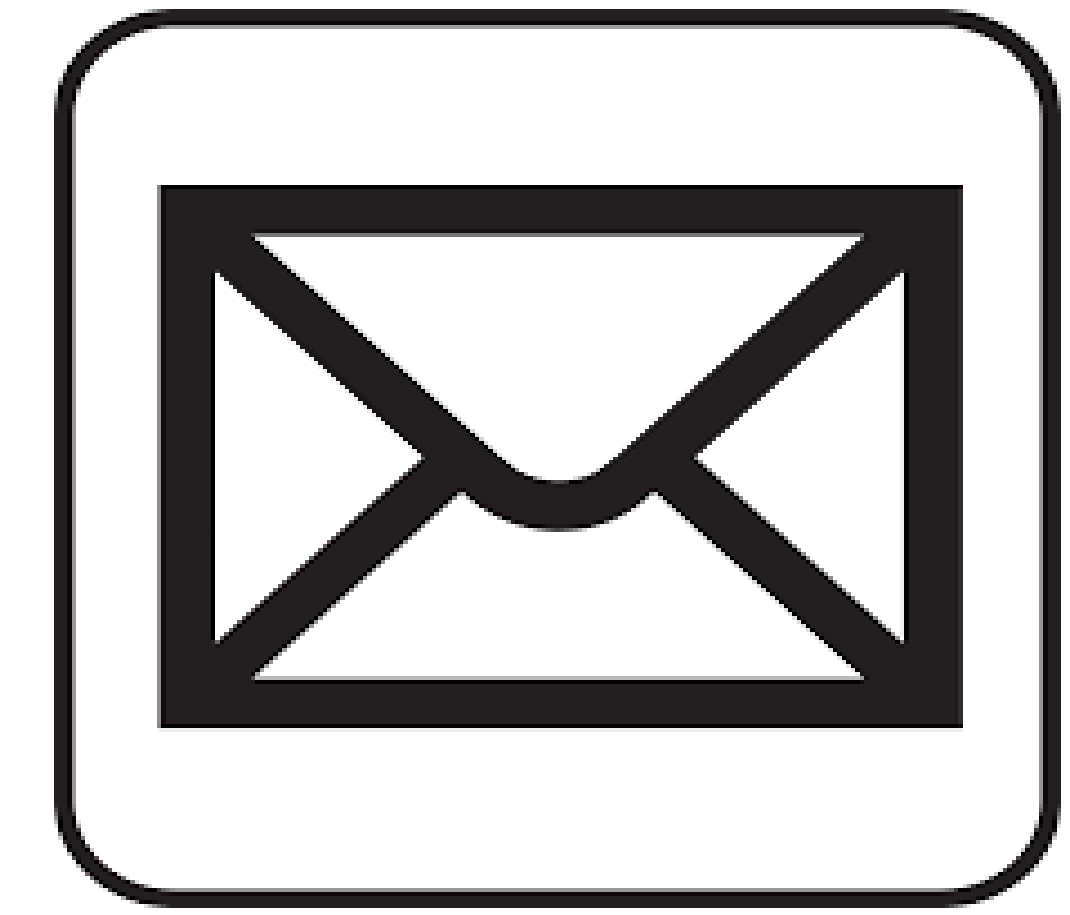

CONCLUSION

These are some of those concluding words that need to be added while ending up with the E-mail before mentioning the name of the sender or on whose behalf the mail is being sent:

- Best Regards.
- Kind Regards.
- Yours Faithfully (When you don't know the name of the concerned person).
- Yours Sincerely (when the salutation is personalized like dear sir / madam or surname).
- Warm Regards.

TIPS FOR WRITING AN E-MAIL

- 1) Use a clear and specific subject line.
- 2) Start with a professional greeting.
- 3) Be concise and to the point.
- 4) Use proper formatting.
- 5) Use professional language and tone.
- 6) Check spelling and grammar.
- 7) Be mindful of the e-mail's tone.
- 8) Provide context if necessary.

TIPS FOR WRITING AN E-MAIL

- 9) Use a clear call to action (CTA).
- 10) End with a professional closing.
- 11) Be mindful of your signature.
- 12) Use CC and BCC correctly.
- 13) Respond promptly.
- 14) Avoid overuse of Emojis and Exclamation marks.
- 15) Consider time zones and work hours.

TIPS FOR WRITING AN E-MAIL

- 16) In the e-mail body, no colloquial language, no long unwinding sentences, no repeated words, no clichéd (overused, stale) terms.
- 17) Message should be positive, short, written in standard font, style, size.
- 18) The message should be spellchecked / proofread.

SAMPLE E-MAIL ON INTRODUCING A NEW EMPLOYEE TO YOUR TEAM

To: Recipient's e-mail ID

Subject: Meet the new customer service representative

Dear Team,

I am pleased to introduce you to (Name), who is starting today as our customer service representative. She will be providing technical support and assistance to our users and making sure they enjoy the best experience with our products.

Feel free to greet (Name) in person and congratulate her on the new role!

Best regards,

(Your name)

(Designation)

SAMPLE E-MAIL ON OFFICIAL INTIMATION OF YOUR RESIGNATION

To: Recipient's e-mail ID

Subject: Resignation

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am planning to pursue my higher studies in the coming academic year, and hence I would like to inform you of my intention to resign from the post of (Designation) at (Name of the Institution), effective three months from now.

I appreciate the opportunities for growth and development you have provided during my association with (Name of the Institution). It was indeed a privilege working here, and it was a valuable work experience which has helped me grow personally and professionally to a great extent.

Please accept this letter as the formal intimation of my resignation.

Thank you for your guidance and support.

Yours sincerely,

(Your name)

SAMPLE E-MAIL ON INFORMING THE EMPLOYEES ABOUT THE CHANGE IN WORK TIMINGS

To: Recipient's e-mail ID

Subject: Revised working hours

Dear Team,

Our company is growing, and there is a good inflow of projects every week. This has been possible with your dedicated and timely teamwork. In order to keep up with this, we have decided that the working hours would be advanced by 30 minutes. The revised time would be 8:30 am to 5 pm. This will be in effect from July 5, 2021 (Monday). It would be appreciated if all of you keep up with the timing and abide by it.

Feel free to come up with suggestions, if any.

Warm regards,

(Your name)

(Designation)

CLASS PRACTICE

Application to the class teacher for absenteeism due to a personal reason.

ACTIVITY

The students have to write a professional E-mail requesting leave from a project manager.

