Activity description: Students will perform a role-play for a mock team meeting with assigned roles (Team Lead, Developer, Tester).

ROLE PLAY

Role Play is an activity where individuals assume specific roles and act out scenarios to simulate real-life situations. It is widely used in education, training, HR, and soft skill development to improve communication, decision-making, empathy, and problem-solving skills.

PURPOSE OF ROLE PLAY

- To practice real-world situations in a safe setting.
- To develop soft skills like communication, teamwork, negotiation.
- To build empathy by understanding others' perspectives.
- To enhance learning through experiential interaction.
- To prepare for interviews, customer service, leadership roles, etc.

BENEFITS OF ROLE PLAY

- Improves Communication Skills: Encourages clarity, confidence, and persuasion in speaking.
- Boosts Confidence: Practicing tough scenarios reduces anxiety in real-life situations.
- Enhances Problem-Solving and Critical Thinking: Players must think on their feet and adapt to changing situations.
- Develops Empathy and Emotional Intelligence: Understanding different roles fosters compassion and better interpersonal skills.
- Team Building: Helps individuals work together, negotiate, and reach solutions collaboratively.
- Reinforces Learning: Role-playing concepts or theories helps reinforce academic or professional knowledge.
- Safe Practice Environment: Participants can make mistakes and learn from them without real-world consequences.

KEY STEPS TO EFFECTIVELY PLAN AND PERFORM THE ROLE PLAY

- 1) Define the objective.
- 2) Select the scenario.
- 3) Identify the roles.
- 4) Prepare the script (optional).
- 5) Set the stage.
- 6) Perform the role play.
- 7) Debrief and discuss.
- 8) Provide feedback.

1) DEFINE THE OBJECTIVE.

Decide why you're conducting the role play.

Examples:

- To improve communication skills
- To practice interview techniques
- To handle a workplace conflict

2) SELECT THE SCENARIO.

Choose a realistic situation related to your goal.

Examples:

- A job interview
- A customer service complaint
- A negotiation between manager and employee

3) IDENTIFY THE ROLES.

Assign roles to participants. Roles may include:

- Interviewer and candidate
- Manager and employee
- Teacher and student

Each participant should clearly understand their character and objective.

4) PREPARE THE SCRIPT (OPTIONAL).

For beginners, create a brief outline or script.

- Who starts the conversation?
- What is the goal of each participant?
- What are possible challenges or conflicts?
- Advanced participants can do it unscripted, to promote spontaneity.

5) SET THE STAGE.

Create a setting that supports the role play.

- Arrange chairs, desks, props, etc., if needed.
- Brief the participants and observers about the context.

6) PERFORM THE ROLE PLAY.

Participants act out their roles, staying in character.

Tips:

- Speak clearly and confidently.
- React naturally.
- Listen actively.
- Stay focused on the scenario.

7) DEBRIEF AND DISCUSS.

After the role play, discuss:

- What went well?
- What challenges were faced?
- What could be improved?
- What did the participants learn?

This step is crucial for reflection and learning.

8) PROVIDE FEEDBACK.

Observers or facilitators should provide constructive feedback on:

- Communication style
- Body language
- Problem-solving skills
- Empathy and cooperation
