WEEK 6: ACTIVITY 6 – LINKEDIN PROFILE

CO609.2: Construct a professional resume, SOP, LinkedIn profile, and GitHub portfolio showcasing individual skills.

Activity description: Students will create or update own LinkedIn profile and share the profile link.

WHAT IS IT USED FOR?

- To connect with colleagues, classmates, and other professionals.
- To find jobs or internships, and for companies to find employees.
- To share your work experience, skills, and achievements (like an online resume).
- To learn new skills through courses (LinkedIn Learning).
- To build your professional reputation by sharing posts, articles, and updates.
- To follow companies, industry leaders, and professional groups.

WHO USES IT?

- Job seekers looking for opportunities.
- Recruiters and companies looking for talent.
- Students and recent graduates building networks.
- Business owners and entrepreneurs promoting their brand.
- Anyone wanting to grow their professional network.

LINKEDIN IS USED FOR:

- Professional networking: You can connect with colleagues, classmates, industry peers, and people you meet at conferences or events.
- Online resume / profile: Your LinkedIn profile acts like a detailed resume, where you list your work experience, education, skills, and achievements.
- Job searching and recruiting: You can search and apply for jobs directly on LinkedIn. Companies and recruiters also use it to find candidates.

LINKEDIN IS USED FOR:

- Personal branding: You can share posts, articles, or updates to showcase your expertise and stay visible in your industry.
- Learning and development: LinkedIn offers online courses (LinkedIn Learning) to build new skills.
- Company pages and networking groups: Organizations use it to promote their brand, and there are groups for discussions around professional interests.
